JOANNA WESTON

Wistaria Woman

Wistaria woman,
whose breasts lie
like sacramental bread
on cupped palms,

you wear summer dust
on your skin
and braid purple skeins
about your waist
where they hang perfumed with penance
below prayed hands.

Wistaria woman,
I spread aconites
on your alter

Joanna Weston is the author of four chapbooks, most recently All Seasons (1997) and has been published in many anthologies and literary journals over the past 15 years. She lives in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan.
